

The Telegraph

CHANDAN PUBLIC SCHOOL

Chandan Public School, Joka celebrated Republic Day with a small ceremony consisting of teachers and staff members on the school premises, adhering to the rules of the new normal. The celebration commenced with the flag hoisting ceremony and singing of the national anthem. Teachers also sang patriotic songs on the occasion. "I am glad that despite the pandemic-induced odds, nothing could stop the teachers and the staff members from paying their tribute to the motherland and vouch for shouldering their responsibilities as worthy citizens of India on the Republic Day. Such a synergised team with its commitment and efforts shall succeed in its mission to contribute in nation building," said principal Writuparna Chatterjee.

The celebration was held in the school courtyard. The principal, Writuparna Chatterjee, presided over the ceremony. She expressed her pride in the school staff and students for their dedication and commitment to the nation.

The school principal, Writuparna Chatterjee, expressed her pride in the school staff and students for their dedication and commitment to the nation. She also mentioned that the school will continue to focus on providing quality education and fostering a sense of patriotism among its students.

SPRAT SCHOOL

Sprat School, Joka celebrated Republic Day with a small ceremony consisting of teachers and staff members on the school premises, adhering to the rules of the new normal. The celebration commenced with the flag hoisting ceremony and singing of the national anthem. Teachers also sang patriotic songs on the occasion. "I am glad that despite the pandemic-induced odds, nothing could stop the teachers and the staff members from paying their tribute to the motherland and vouch for shouldering their responsibilities as worthy citizens of India on the Republic Day. Such a synergised team with its commitment and efforts shall succeed in its mission to contribute in nation building," said principal Writuparna Chatterjee.

Students of Sprat School, Joka participating in the flag hoisting ceremony.

DELHI INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL

Delhi International School, Joka celebrated Republic Day with a small ceremony consisting of teachers and staff members on the school premises, adhering to the rules of the new normal. The celebration commenced with the flag hoisting ceremony and singing of the national anthem. Teachers also sang patriotic songs on the occasion. "I am glad that despite the pandemic-induced odds, nothing could stop the teachers and the staff members from paying their tribute to the motherland and vouch for shouldering their responsibilities as worthy citizens of India on the Republic Day. Such a synergised team with its commitment and efforts shall succeed in its mission to contribute in nation building," said principal Writuparna Chatterjee.

DELHI PUBLIC SCHOOL, JOKA

Delhi Public School, Joka celebrated Republic Day with a small ceremony consisting of teachers and staff members on the school premises, adhering to the rules of the new normal. The celebration commenced with the flag hoisting ceremony and singing of the national anthem. Teachers also sang patriotic songs on the occasion. "I am glad that despite the pandemic-induced odds, nothing could stop the teachers and the staff members from paying their tribute to the motherland and vouch for shouldering their responsibilities as worthy citizens of India on the Republic Day. Such a synergised team with its commitment and efforts shall succeed in its mission to contribute in nation building," said principal Writuparna Chatterjee.

YOUNG METRO

Young Metro, Joka celebrated Republic Day with a small ceremony consisting of teachers and staff members on the school premises, adhering to the rules of the new normal. The celebration commenced with the flag hoisting ceremony and singing of the national anthem. Teachers also sang patriotic songs on the occasion. "I am glad that despite the pandemic-induced odds, nothing could stop the teachers and the staff members from paying their tribute to the motherland and vouch for shouldering their responsibilities as worthy citizens of India on the Republic Day. Such a synergised team with its commitment and efforts shall succeed in its mission to contribute in nation building," said principal Writuparna Chatterjee.

The school principal, Writuparna Chatterjee, expressed her pride in the school staff and students for their dedication and commitment to the nation. She also mentioned that the school will continue to focus on providing quality education and fostering a sense of patriotism among its students.