■ Students of Nursery to Class II of Delhi Public School, Joka, put up a special assembly, Bajlo Umar Aalor Benu, to celebrate Durga Puja on September 27.

Over 250 students took part in the programme in the school auditorium. The event covered all days of Durga Puja from Mahalaya to Bijaya Dashami through songs, dance and drama performances. The high point was the dance drama, Mahisasura Mardini.

The guests included directors Bela Agarwal and Deepak Prakash Agarwal, principal Writuparna Chatterjee, headmaster Rajib Bhattacharya, teachers and parents.

"The special assembly was an initiative of the junior school to bring rhythm and excitement back to their lives. It was great watching Mahisasura Mardini. Roleplays are an effective medium to inculcate self-discipline," said the principal.
